GLADIOLI

CANNAS DAHLIAS

BRECK-ROBINSON NURSERY CO.

LEXINGTON, MASS.

WE take pleasure in announcing our recent acquisition of the entire business of Chamberlain & Co., Gladiolus growers, of Wellesley, Mass. We have transferred their large stock of bulbs to Lexington, where the business will be continued in connection with our extensive nurseries and seed-trial grounds, under the personal supervision of Mr. Montague Chamberlain, well known as a specialist in the propagation and growing of fine Gladioli.

Located in the eastern part of historic Lexington, only ten miles from Boston, access to our gardens is easy from all parts of the Metropolitan District. Frequent trains from North Station, and electric cars by way of Harvard Square and Arlington Heights, stop at Munroe Station, which is at our very door. Good automobile roads lead from all directions. In July, August, and September our fields are masses of rich color; visitors are welcomed, and are invited to inspect our grounds and equipment.

CULTURAL DIRECTIONS

Gladiolus bulbs can be planted at any time after the frost is out of the ground, say from the middle of April, in this latitude, to the first of July. A few varieties will bloom in seventy-five to eighty days from date of planting, but most sorts require about ninety days.

Any rich garden soil will be found suitable, soil that will grow corn or potatoes giving good success; but if the soil is not fertile it may be enriched with any complete fertilizer. Barn manure is good, but must be spaded under the Fall before. Any good potato phosphate will be found serviceable, altho probably the very best fertilizer for the average soil is a mixture of hardwood ashes and ground bone. Some gardeners use sheep-manure exclusively for these bulbs. Mix the fertilizer thoroughly with the soil before setting the bulbs. Plant the bulbs about five or six inches deep and three or four inches apart.

For top dressing, after the plants are above the ground, sheep manure or hardwood ashes and ground bone are effective. When buds begin to show color an application of liquid manure about once a week improves the bloom. The plants require plenty of water and of sunshine. It is a mistake to plant them in front of large shrubs that will shade them from the sun. The taller varieties and those with slender stems need staking when approaching maturity, to prevent their being blown down by the wind.

In the autumn, when their leaves turn brown, the bulbs should be lifted, and their tops cut within a half-inch of the bulb. After being thoroughly dried they should be stored in a cool place where frost will not reach them. A vegetable cellar suits them admirably.

Flowering Cannas

The following are some of the most satisfactory of the sorts that we have tried out, and form a thoroughly up-to-date collection. Prices are for plants started in three and one-half inch pots.

Alice Roosevelt. 4 ft. A good old variety with dark green leaves and large salmon-scarlet flowers. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Beacon. 4 to 4½ ft. Green foliage; produces great masses of rich cardinal flowers. 25 cts. each, $2.00 per doz.

Beaute Poitevine. 3½ ft. Green foliage; dark crimson flowers of large size. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Charles Henderson. 4 ft. Green foliage; flowers of deep crimson, with flame-yellow throat. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Florence Vaughan. 3½ ft. Green foliage; flowers rich golden yellow, thickly spotted with bright red. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Hungaria. 3½ ft. Green foliage; flowers very large, blush pink with satiny sheen. 25 cts. each, $2.00 per doz.

Kate F. Deemer. 4 ft. Green foliage. A grand flower of rich, oriole-yellow, which gradually gives place to turkey-red in the centre. The throat is almost white. 30 cts. each, $3.00 per doz.

King Humbert. 4 ft. Bronze foliage with brownish green stripes, large thick, and leathery. Flowers large, bright orange scarlet streaked with crimson. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Loveliness. 3 ft. Green foliage. The color of this exquisite Canna is difficult to describe, though "bright ruby crimson" will perhaps convey an idea of its loveliness. The blooms are formed on large heads in perfect form, and we consider it one of the finest Cannas in existence. 30 cts. each, $3.00 per doz.

Meteor. (Wintzer's). 5 ft. Green foliage; flowers of a deep, dazzling crimson. Undoubtedly the best red Canna in existence. 50 cts. each, $5.00 per doz.

Mrs. Alfred F. Conard. 4 ft. Green foliage; the most popular pink Canna ever introduced; unsurpassed for planting either singly or in large beds. The salmon-pink flowers are of the largest size. 40 cts. each, $4.00 per doz.

Mont Blanc. 3½ ft. Green foliage; almost pure white flowers; the largest near-white Canna in existence. 25 cts. each, $2.00 per doz.

Niagara. 3 ft. Green foliage; flowers are rich, deep crimson with irregular border of golden yellow; a popular variety. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Nigricans. 6 ft. Bronze foliage; flowers brick-red. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Olympic. 5 ft. Green foliage; flowers are very large, of a captivating shade of rich orient-red, with centre of lighter shade and dappled carmine. 50 cts. each, $5.00 per doz.

Pennsylvania. 6 ft. Green foliage; flowers large, pure, deep scarlet. A very fine orchid flowering variety, 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Pillar of Fire. 6 ft. Green foliage; the giant of its class; flowers bright crimson scarlet, borne in erect spikes like blazing torches. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Rosea Gigantea. 4 ft. Green foliage. Rich rose-pink flowers of giant size; a prodigious bloomer. The color is unusually pleasing and is most popular. 25 cts. each, $2.00 per doz.

Richard Wallace. 4 ft. Green foliage; flowers large, pure yellow. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

William Saunders. 4 ft. Bronze leaved. A constant bloomer, the flowers often 5 inches across, bright scarlet. 15 cts. each, $1.50 per doz.

Wintzer's Colossal. 5 to 6 ft. Green foliage. Orchid flowers 8 inches across, vivid scarlet; the largest Canna in commerce. 50 cts. each, $5.00 per doz.
